2011 Summer Art Scholarships Available

Kitchener, Ontario July, 2011 - Inspire creativity this summer and give deserving youth the chance to attend Summer Art Camp at the Kitchener-Waterloo Art Gallery.

The KW|AG Public Programs and Education department invites the public to nominate youth, ages 7-13, interested in attending Summer Art Camp, but who may not be able to because of financial barriers.

A limited number of scholarships are available. The application process for scholarship support is confidential and based on a candidates demonstrated interest in the visual arts as well as family circumstances.

The KW|AG's Summer Art Camp fosters creativity, critical thinking and individual development. During the program participants are given the chance to create original art work in a variety of mediums. Each week offers new programming all taught by our Summer Art instructors.

Registration for Summer Art Camp is available on a weekly or daily basis from July 4-August 12 for two age groups, 7-9 yrs. and 10-13 yrs. For more information visit www.kwag.ca

KW|AG thanks The Kitchener and Waterloo Community Foundation – The Waterloo Region Record – Lyle S. Hallman Foundation Kids to Camp Fund, Kitchener Pioneer Lions Club Inc., The Optimist Club of Lakeshore Village Waterloo, The Optimist Club of Stanley Park Kitchener and The Optimist Club of Waterloo North, for their generous support of the Summer Art 2011 Scholarship Program.

Requests for further information and nomination forms may be made through Alex Krueger, Public Programs Coordinator at (519) 579-5860 (ext.213) or akrueger@kwag.on.ca. Applications will be accepted on an on going basis.

Admission to KW|AG is free courtesy of Sun Life Financial. All are welcome.
