Get in Touch with Your Inner Child at Friday Night @ KW|AG

April 3, 2008 - Kitchener, ON – Is life getting you down? Do you look back on your childhood and wonder how things got so complicated? In keeping with the student artwork theme of our current exhibition, on April 18th you can return to the days of play and get in touch with your inner child. Friday Night @ KW|AG is a fun, social event for the creative and curious. Adults 19 years of age or older are invited to visit the Gallery after hours, and mix and mingle in the unique Gallery setting.

What's In It for You?

- Chalk it up to fun – Make your mark on a collaborative sidewalk chalk mural with artist facilitator Mindy Alexander.
- Have your cake and eat it too – Indulge in the sweet creations of The Cake Box (www.cakebox.ca), who use icing as their palette to create amazing confectionary art.
- Lively music - Groove to the music of DJ Mouth (Tristan D'Nightway). Get down to Mouth's drum'n'bass music and selections that go well beyond Top 40 hits. Mouth's affiliations include www.earwaks.com where he can be contacted at mouth@earwaks.com.
- Enjoy a Gallery tour with a trained Gallery guide (docent). Admire the amazing talents of student artists from Waterloo region in our current Expressions 33 and Re-mix exhibition.
- You be the judge – Engage in a court room drama, based on local issues, by Vancouver video artist Allison Hrabluik.
- Get inspired – Mingle, meet new people, and explore your artistic side with sculpture materials (some appetizingly edible...some not...)
- Signature drink and appetizers included with the price of admission, prepared by Artbar creative dining and wines (www.artbar.ca). Additional menu selections and drinks available.

...all this for the low cost of $15 per ticket (if purchased in advance).
